ABOUT INDORE

Indore, the cleanest city of India, was established in the 16th century as a trading hub between Delhi and Deccan. It flourished under the Holkar dynasty, becoming the capital of the Holkar State in the 18th century. The city's iconic landmarks, Rajwada Palace, Chhatri Bagh and Lal Bagh Palace, reflect its royal past. Indore played a key role in India's freedom struggle, hosting leaders like Mahatma Gandhi. Today, it stands as Madhya Pradesh's commercial and educational capital, blending history with modernity.

Places To Visit

Chhappan Dukan (56 Dukaan)

Chhappan Dukan (56 Dukaan) is a popular food street in Indore, named after its 56 food stalls. It offers a variety of local and international dishes, including Poha-Jalebi, Sabudana Khichdi, and Dahi Puri. Known for its lively atmosphere, it is a must-visit spot for food lovers.

Khajrana Ganesh Mandir

Khajrana Ganesh Mandir is a famous Hindu temple in Indore, built by Rani Ahilyabai Holkar in the 18th century. It is dedicated to Lord Ganesha and is believed to fulfill devotees' wishes. The temple attracts thousands of visitors, especially during Ganesh Chaturthi.

Lal Bagh Palace

The construction of Lal Bagh Palace, or the Red Palace, began in the late nineteenth century and was completed in 1926 by the Holkar dynasty, whose leaders were some of the most powerful Maratha rulers of India. The architecture reflects Italian Renaissance Revival style, making it one of India's finest neoclassical buildings. It is renowned for its European-influenced interiors, among the finest surviving from this period in India..
